

Feed My Sheep Ministries, Montrouis, Haiti

Security: Smith and Gilano

Left is Smith. He is our Head of Security and works the week end shift, shuttles our teams to their destinations in our 3-wheeled motorcycle and goes to town for our daily supplies. To the right is our newest member to the FMS staff: Gilano. He works the week night shift.

Interpreters: Chantel and TiTi

Chantel is a wonderful interpreter. TiTi is also used on occasion. Interpreters are paid $15 U.S. of a half day (ending at lunch) and $30 for whole day (going on after lunch). We also have a few others we use but pictures are not available.
